His Highness desires me now to address you in the matter of G.O.No.Fl.5717-9/Gl.Fin.10-07-31 dated 2-5-1908, which authorized the Comptroller to recoup to the officer in charge of Palace Establishments sums advanced by him, from time to time, to Mr. Subrayer in connection with the construction of the Third Maharajakumari's Mansion. The mansion works are more or less completed now, and Mr. Subrayer will hand over charge of the mansion to Mr. Lakshmikantaraj Urs himself tomorrow, as approved by His Highness. The expenditure on the remaining items of work, viz. decoration of interior, furniture, laying out of ~~gardens~~ grounds &c., will be incurred by Mr. Lakshmikantaraj Urs and payments to meet it will also have to be arranged by him. In order to enable him to do this, the Palace Controller has been instructed to honour cheques issued over his signature, instead of Mr. Subrayer's, with effect from tomorrow. I am therefore to request you to kindly have the Comptroller informed, in modification of the terms of the G.O. above quoted, that Mr. Lakshmikantaraj Urs will issue the cheques henceforward and that payments made by the Palace Controller on account of them will have to be recouped as heretofore.
